Description

TUKa brand was born in 2008. The goal of the company was to become a show example of the modern digital and offset production. Eventually we became full size printing house and absorbed our publishing house company into one entity. Currently we employ more than 20 professionals and are capable to offer our clients extensively personalized production on paper and plastic substrates. Our specialization is complex and highly personalized or individualized solutions. We are capable to deliver cost effective and complex solutions very rapidly.
