Description

We are glad to bring good emotions to simple, practical and everyday things. By focusing on them, we are looking for extraordinary and high-quality fabrics. Things are created for the responsible consumers who need quality with a spice of pleasure. Thing Stories' products facilitate life and are easy to integrate into the prevailing interior by adding unique and refined elegance and inspiration enabling us to change, create and share. Even if naturalness has not been yours so far, adding some new accessories to your home environment will let you start creating their new stories - there are no strict rules here. Thing Stories offers a range of natural linen products for your table, bath and other things, such as tablecloths, table runners, napkins, bath and kitchen towels, as well as totes, bags for traveling and baskets for cosmetic products.
